County Politics.

The "political pot has commenced to 'siz' and will soon reach a boiling point." Candidates can be seen flitting about, here and there, as active as a swarm of bees. From which we logically infer that we are to have a warm contest over the "spoils" of "office" this fall. There is at the present time of writing a dozen or more candidates for the office of Treasurer alone, with a formidable array for the remaining "gifts," and when you consider that but one can occupy an office at a time, it may naturally be supposed that somebody is bound to be disappointed.

So far most of the electioneering has been done by the democrats, while our republican friends are laying low, awaiting the first turn in the tide, political, to start out & try the field. But as the party is in a hopeless minority, it is not expected that they will make headway.

State Elections.

The State election in Kentucky, which was held last Monday, resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket by from 40,000 to 50,000 majority. The Legislature is a unanimous democratic. The election in Tennessee took place yesterday and the result is looked upon with anxiety. The indications were that Senter would be elected Governor and that Andy Johnson would be returned to the Senate. The election in Alabama was held on the 31st, but as it takes two weeks to finish voting there, the result will not be made known for some time yet.

An Interesting Personal History.

We find the following in the Newark Register:

Mr. Albert Riggs, a wealthy and well known citizen of Drakesville, Morris county, New Jersey, lately reached the ripe old age of seventy-five, and still enjoys the best health. His past history is of a very interesting character. At the age of seventeen Mr. Riggs found himself cast upon the wide world with but $4. In his pocket book. With a part of this money he bought an old and almost worn out canal horse, and with the remainder he purchased the right to use a canal boat from a party for a short period of time. His father had been on the canal before him, and therefore Mr. Riggs was not totally ignorant of the work to be done and the profits to be made in this kind of business. In a short time the venture proved a success. As the business and profits rapidly increased, more boats were hired, and a thriving system of commerce carried on.

In this manner Mr. Riggs soon became sufficiently well off to purchase the boats he had been using, and from that time to the present his wealth has been accumulating, until he is now acknowledged to be the richest man in Drakesville. He is at present the owner of a large number of boats on the Morris canal, which hires out to certain parties; and he also owns real estate in the vicinity to the amount of over a hundred thousand dollars.

Boutwell Justly Punished.

Alluding to a letter recently published, from Mr. Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury, to Stokes, one of the candidates for Governor of Tennessee, the New York Evening Post says :

When Mr. Buchanan used his influence as President to secure the success of the democratic party in Kansas, a great outcry was made, and we thought justly about it. Is it any more proper for the Secretary of the Treasury to thus openly take sides now?

General Grant's Cabinet may be Republican in their private opinions; but as public officers, heads of the federal administration, they are the servants of the whole people, regardless of party; and when one of them interferes with the weight of his official power, in the elections, he treads upon dangerous ground. Mr. Boutwell has a right to his opinions about the Tennessee canvass; but the Secretary of the Treasury is, it seems to us, bound to keep his hands off.

Thomas B. Bashaw, of Mexico, Missouri, whilst laboring under an attack of cramp colic, on Sunday morning, took a huge dose of the tincture of crocetone for chloroform. He discovered the mistake instantly, and swallowed an antitoxin in the shape of a large dose of sweet oil and several raw eggs. On Monday morning he was out again, without any ill effect except a scorched tongue. The colic was cured.

TEACHERS.

CARVER, July 14th 1869.

We now refer to the class of poor teachers. Poor, not on account of pecuniary embarrassment, but for a decided want of intellect. They are those who in order to gain notice, thrust themselves upon the community by giving turn to the youthful mind. They have no definite idea of the business they are engaged, or of the things they are required to teach. They enter their schools without seeing or knowing anything clearly. They know not how to begin or how to proceed after having begun; are often confused and sometimes utterly confounded. If called upon to explain the principle of a rule in arithmetic, they are at a loss to know what is meant by the question; for it has never entered their heads that the rules of arithmetic are based upon principles. They will not sustain a respectable examination in the fundamental rules, much less give a rigid analysis of fractions or demonstrate a problem in evolution. They have a smattering knowledge of grammar, hardly able to discriminate a noun from a preposition. They know nothing of the earth and its relation to the planetary system—its political divisions and its physical topography. They are wretched readers and worse spellers. Their object in teaching is to gain a certain sum of money within a required time. They have no desire to remain longer than one term at a place. They love to form acquaintances and hence circulate as much as possible.

Visit with us the school of a poor teacher.

You find the scholars everywhere, but where they ought to be. It is half past nine o'clock when the bell rings. For the next twenty minutes they are strutting in the room, whereas one minute would be sufficient time. If in the winter, the larger ones gather around the stove to discuss what a fine time they had at last evening's party, while the smaller ones are crowded back to freeze. None of them seem to be aware that school is intended for study. The teacher after spending twenty minutes more to produce silence, calls upon a class to read, "Toe that aircrack" says he to the class, but instead of standing as they should, some face the north—some the south—the some the east and some the west. The teacher takes a book to see if any mistakes are made. While the one at the head of the class is reading, a boy in the room presents his writing book for a copy. He lays aside his book and commences writing and while doing this another boy yells out, "Will you hunt up my pen?" Willing to accommodate all he leaves off writing the copy to look for the pen. Before he finds the pen another erases out "sum"—Another wants to find a place on the map.

All of these calls are attended forthwith and all are left unfinished to attend to something else. Thus perhaps a half hour has been spent and the class tired of reading, some one calls out, "Hain't we read fur enuf?" "I don't know" says the teacher, "how fur have you read?" "Six lessons." "Well that fur'd enuf—take your seat and tend your books." Now what follows, First boys says "I wish you would finish writing my copy." Next boy says, "where's my pen?" "Your pen?" "Yes, you left off looking for it to do Jim sum."

One wants to go out—another is making faces. By this time the teacher becomes impatient. He calls upon the school for silence. He raves, stamps and frets and another half hour is wasted in getting quiet. Now what benefit is such a teacher to a school. Better that children never saw a teacher than be placed under the charge of such a one.

Everything is confusion—perfect bedlam from morning until night, from day to day, from month to month. Many of our schools are furnished with teachers no better than those just described.

They are totally unfit for the instruction and management of a school and communicate more error in three months than a good teacher can eradicate in double that length of time.

In Search of a Breakfast Under Diminutives.

[Wash. Correspondence Chicago Tribune.]

The President had rather a hard time in getting something to eat this morning. The White House is closed and the cooks off on vacation. The President went to Welker's restaurant and asked for a private room and breakfast. The person in charge didn't know him, and replied that he could be served with anything he wanted in public, but he couldn't have separate quarters. At this the President left and went over to Wanlys.—One of the boarders at Welker's told the clerk whom he had refused. The clerk replied: "Well, if he had come in his carriage, like a gentleman, he might have had a room. How could I know he was not a shoemaker with his good clothes on, and not able to pay for a room?"

The French Atlantic cable from Brest, France, connecting with the United States at Duxbury, Mass., was completed on Tuesday last, and congratulatory messages between Napoleon and President Grant were sent over the line.

Success in life is very apt to make us forget the time when we weren't much. It is just so with a frog on a jump; he can't remember when he was a tadpole, but other folks can.

During the last four years the colored population of Texas has decreased ten cent.

Post Office Change.

The community was astonished last week by the announcement that Lucie Warner had received the appointment of Post Master of this village—turning out August Klammer the present efficient incumbent. The aggravating part of the transaction was, and is in the fact, that Mr. Klammer is a one legged soldier, having lost his right limb in the charge on Hood's lines at Nashville, while gallantly fighting for the preservation of the Union! Mr. Warner was during the same time enjoying his ease at home. Mr. Klammer is a cripple for life, with no trade upon which to rely for the support of himself and family. Mr. Warner has enough of this world's comfort already to do without the pauper salary of the office $280. Republicans and Democrats alike condemn the change in unmeasured terms and it seems but right in view of the facts. But as Mr. Warner is absent, we refrain from further comments hoping that he will at least, profer Mr. Klammer the proceeds of the office by his attending to the duties thereof. So much at least is due the unanimous will of the citizens of Chaska for contributing liberally to forward the undertaking.

BUILDINGS.—The new Herald office is receiving the finishing touches from the plasterer and painter and will be ready for occupation next week. It is a tasty building and improves 2d street greatly. Mr. Sheetz new building is up and enclosed and will soon be ready for use. Mr. Von Melkens new shop is also ready.

Henry Young is building a large brick stable near his warehouse. Our mechanics are at present quite busy, and the prospect is good for a continuation until winter.

CITY FATHERS.—The attention of our city fathers is respectfully called to the dangerous condition of the street in front of Mr. Ellsworth's residence. The first named Mr. Leonard Strenkens is a resident of Benton, and is a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds.

Mr. Wm. Brinkhaus is a resident of Chaska, and is a candidate for the Treasurary. Both are good reliable democrats and will abide the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

HARVEST.—Harvesting the "golden grain" has commenced in earnest and another issue a great bulk of the grain will have succumbed to the reaper. The yield will be large, and more equally distributed than last fall—Each farmer has his field of Oats, Barley, Rye and Wheat. Everything looks promising.

FISHING.—In company with Mr. Diefenbacher and G. A. Du Toit of Carver, we visited, on Monday, Mr. Bell's lake, some 7 miles from town, on a fishing excursion, and were eminently successful. We caught 46 as clean and nice string of fish as ever came out of any lake in the State. But it must be borne in mind that we were all expert fishers, and therein lies the secret of our success.

PACKARD'S MONTHLY.—This new Magazine is rapidly gaining friends and will long compete with first magazine as to excellence, influence &c. The August number contains a brilliant array of articles, by some of our most noted writers. We advise all to subscribe. Address Packards Monthly, 937 Broadway N. Y. $1.00 per year.

LITERARY NOTICES.—In company with Mr. Packard's Monthly, this new Magazine is rapidly gaining friends and another issue a great bulk of the grain will have succumbed to the reaper. The yield will be large, and more equally distributed than last fall—Each farmer has his field of Oats, Barley, Rye and Wheat. Everything looks promising.

PERSONAL.—Our village has been visited by a number of distinguished strangers from abroad the present and past week.

Mr. Prescott, Supt., of Sunday Schools of this State, was present and participated in the Sunday School celebration last Friday. Also Mr. Rose of St. Paul and Rev. Mr. Campbell of Shakopee, D. L. Howe and wife of Shakopee were in town on a visit to friends.

Genl. John B. Sanborn, formerly Col. of the gallant 4th Minn. was in town on business during the week.

Mr. Smith and daughter of Mississippi brother of Capt. Smith of this place, are here on a short visit.

SHIPMENTS.—The Messrs. Howes have shipped several large load of brick to St. Paul during the last two weeks.

Lucien Warner shipped below 150,000 shaved hoop-poles on the Mankato last Saturday. The river business is growing dull and will probably continue so for a month longer.

During the last four years the colored population of Texas has decreased ten cent.

WATERTOWN, July 28.
The President of the United States to the Emperor of the French :—
I cordially reciprocate your good wishes, and trust that the liberal policy of the United States, pursuant to which this cable has been issued, may result in many such means of communication, especially between this country and its earliest ally and friend.

The Chase Movement.

That there is a movement on foot throughout the Southern States and some of the Middle States to get up a Chase party within the ranks of the Republican organization, is too apparent to leave any room to doubt. What is called the Conservative movement in the Southern States, which has just resulted in the election of Governor Walker, in Virginia, and has produced the nomination of Senter in Tennessee, and Hamilton in Texas, is but the forerunner of the nomination of Chief Justice Chase as a "Conservative" candidate for the Presidency in 1872.

The Democratic party will not attempt to put up another candidate for the Presidency, but will support Judge Chase, if nominated by a Conservative Convention. An intelligent Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, says:

"From first to last Chief Justice Chase was consulted, and for much of the time he was on the ground in person. His preference for Walker did more than anything else to divert the negro vote from Wells, and it was the division of their vote that elected Walker. The election may be regarded as the first success for the Chase movement for the next Presidential campaign, which has already much wider ramifications than many believe. In Virginia, Texas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Maryland and New York, it has already actively manifested itself."

A similar movement is on foot in this State and those who are leading it have ample fund to carry out their purpose.—
Baltimore American.

Cable Greeting.

The following congratulatory message has been passed between the Emperor Napoleon and President Grant, over the new French cable :

PARIS, July 23.—8:45 A. M.

The Emperor of the French to the President of the United States, Washington :

I am highly gratified to inaugurate the new line of telegraph which unites France with the United States, by sending to you the expression of my good wishes for you, and for the prosperity of the United States. (Signed)

NAPOLEON.

WASHINGTON, July 28.
The President of the United States to the Emperor of the French :

I cordially reciprocate your good wishes, and trust that the liberal policy of the United States, pursuant to which this cable has been issued, may result in many such means of communication, especially between this country and its earliest ally and friend.
(Signed)

A. DONNELLY.

From the Lake City Leader.

The administration is in the position, at this moment, of having rewarded General Andrews with a foreign mission for the service of electing a Democratic Congressman from this district by coming out just before election and running against Donnelly. Had Edwin E. Stanton or Charles Sumner, or George S. Boutwell, or any live, sincere Republican, free from entanglements with Minnesota quarellers, been the Secretary of State, he would have seen the impropriety of this appointment, and said firmly to Andrews backers, "Gentlemen, for the good of the party this application must be refused; the majority of the Republicans in that district are not to be thus insulted,"

Will of a Millionaire.

The will of the late Jacob Cram, of New York city, has been admitted to probate in the surrogate's court. Mr. Cram left an estate worth nearly $1,000,000, mostly in real estate in New York and Chicago. The widow being dead, the entire estate is left to the four children of deceased—two sons and two daughters—an equal part. The original will placed the share of each of the children, with the exception of Henry A. Cowin, in trust for their use; in the codicils they are all taken out of trust and bequeathed without condition, except the share of the daughter, Laura Virginia, wife of Gen. James W. Webb. In her case the executors are directed to hold the shares in trust for her use during the life of her husband. In case she is to survive her husband she is to come into absolute possession of her share. Otherwise it is to go to her next of kin, or if she leave children, to them, in trust. The executors are Frederick G. Thurston, Henry K. Bull, and Henry A. Cram.

Almost the End of It.

The vitality of the republican party is fast leaving it. It has expired in Virginia, in Kentucky, in Alabama, and Tennessee, and according to Morgan Hamilton, the leader of the Texas radicalism, it is dead in that state too. Hamilton says:

The Republican party is as dead today in Texas as it is in Kentucky. It had, in the face of the formidable combination organized against it, but a sorry prospect in the immediate future, but then it had a future, which now it has not. I have no stomach for future work in the contest. It has been from the start a hopeless contest.

REAPER TRIAL.

The reaper trial takes place next Tuesday on the farm of Mr. Starken on the Chaska and Waconia road. Go and witness the trial!

DIED.—At Carter August 10th 1869, Geo. Intel, aged 73 and 7 months. Mr. Intel was Mr. Chas. Basler's father-in-law and was a well known and much respected citizen. The funeral was largely attended.

MARRIED.

Tuesday August 13th at the residence of Judge Rogers, by the Rev. Mr. Reiske, C. Eugene Rogers, M. D., and Mary Pamela, daughter of the late, B. F. Thompson Esq., of Troy, New York.

We know hardly how to tread upon this subject and yet we would wonder at, for how can one "scholar" appreciate the feelings that prompted this happy union to become one?

Nevertheless Doctor, we wish you and your beautiful bride a joyous journey o'er life rugged path. The printers were kindly remembered.

What in Europe.

Private dispatches from Europe report bad weather in England and France, injury to crops, and an advance in bread-stuffs.

While demonstrations of joy at the misfortune of our neighbors across the waters would be reprehensible, we can contemplate, with serene satisfaction, the prospects of our own abundant crops, and the enhanced price that will be obtained.

The State Teachers' Association

The ninth annual meeting of the Teachers of Minnesota will take place at Rochester on the 25th, 26th, and 27th of this month, and I hope all the Teachers that can will attend. Arrangements have been made for half fare upon the cars, and for entertainment there for all that will be present. I desire all who intend going from this Co. to inform me of the fact by letter immediately, as it is necessary that I should know the probable number that will go, that I may notify the committee of arrangements in advance.

Road Contract.

The Supervisors of this town, let the contract for the grading and building of an alteration of the Chaska and Waconia road leading out of town and which has always here-tofore been difficult of egress on account of Loy's hill. The road, when finished, will run around the foot of the hill, south west of the old road, and intersects again about $\frac{1}{2}$ of mid distant. It also runs directly south and crosses the creek near Mr. T. D. Smith's fence, where a new bridge will be built of 40 foot span. The contract was awarded to Mr. Wm. Brinkhaus, the lowest bidder for \$717.49. The road will be completed in about 2 months, and will be, when finished, a splendid road; so that teams can travel to and from Waconia, Watertown &c., without trouble with heavy loads. It is an improvement that should have been made long ago, but better late than never.

POLITICAL CARD.—Hon. I. I. Lewis inserts an announcement as a candidate for Senator. Mr. Lewis was our representative two years ago, and is well known to the citizens of our County.

SOIREE MAGIQUE.—We witnessed a very interesting performance by Messrs. Wells & Warner at the Concordia Hall last Monday evening. The widow being dead, the entire estate is left to the four children of deceased—two sons and two daughters—an equal part. The original will placed the share of each of the children, with the exception of Henry A. Cowin, in trust for their use; in the codicils they are all taken out of trust and bequeathed without condition, except the share of the daughter, Laura Virginia, wife of Gen. James W. Webb. The executors are Frederick G. Thurston, Henry K. Bull, and Henry A. Cram.

COMMUNICATION.—We publish at the head of our editorial column a letter to F. E. Du Toit and his reply thereto in regard to the Senatorship. It will be seen that Mr. D. declines to become a candidate. Col. Baxter and Hon. I. I. Lewis are we believe the only two candidates now in the field for that position.

BY F. E. DU TOIT.

CHASEA FRIDAY August, 20, 1869.

FULLY DEMONSTRATED.

The recent State elections in the South have fully demonstrated one thing, namely: That where the Democratic party have cut loose from the old "dead issues of the past" that have been carrying them to defeat, year after year, and planted themselves fairly and squarely upon the living present, success has attended them in every instance. It is folly therefore, for the Democratic party longer to fight the negro, or his right to vote on the sixteenth amendment—Let the African work out his own destiny, it is "Root hog or die," with him; if he succeeds well and good, remembering that a high, radical authority has taught us that the surest way to repeal a bad law is its faithful enforcement—"Let the dead bury the dead." Let the Democratic party plant itself upon living issues, that affect the great mass of the American people. Let us say, "Good bye African, good bye reconstruction, good bye constitutional amendments, and welcome the practical living issues of whether or not, eight men should pay tribute to two, in the form of unjust and oppressive tariffs, of whether or not, a debased currency shall be paid to the farmers and the mechanics for their produce and labor, and gold to the bond-holder—of whether or not, the property, no matter in what form, of two-tenths of the people shall pay no taxes, and the other eight-tenths all." As we stated above let the Democratic party incorporate these sentiments in their platform, and we do not despair of success even in Minnesota.

EUROPE.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—The Journal Officiel to-day publishes a decree in which the Emperor, in commemoration of the one hundredth birthday of the Emperor Napoleon I., grants full and complete amnesty to the press and political offenders, to persons convicted of the evasion of taxes, to deserters from the army and navy, and to sailors who have abandoned their ships.

THE GALLOW-TREE.

Lynching of a Three thousand acre Farmer Near Lebanon.

(From the Louisville Courier-Journal Aug. 10.)

A private letter received in this city yesterday states that on last Friday night a party of fifteen men, masked and mounted, went to the house of James Crowder, fourteen miles beyond Lebanon, on the Lebanon and Danville pike, and, taking him out a short distance from the house, hanged him to the limb of a tree. The lynchers quieted his wife by holding a loaded revolver to her head.

It is said that Crowder was a very kind old gentleman, and much esteemed, but there were reports that he was concerned in some large swindles. He was 60 years of age. He owned some 3,000 acres of land near Lebanon, and before the war owned a large number of negroes.

Within a month, it is said, three men have been taken out and hung by the party that lynched the Crowders.

The Winnebago Indians.

A gentleman, until recently a resident of Philadelphia, writes us from the Winnebago agency, Nebraska, under date of August 9:

A short time since I relinquished my practice in my native city (Philadelphia), and accepted the position of surgeon to the Winnebago Indian agency, now under the management of "Friends." The agent of this tribe is Howard White, of New Jersey. We arrived here about the 6th of last month. We found the Winnebago Indians located on a reservation of about one hundred thousand acres of land which they purchased of the Omaha Indians a few years ago.

This once numerous and powerful tribe is now reduced to less than one thousand four hundred. The tribe is composed of fourteen "bands," each of which is known by its chief. Each "band" cultivates a small patch of land in common. Arrangements are being made to allow their lands to them, giving to each head of a family one hundred and sixty acres.

Minneapolis County.

The Hennepin county republican convention was held yesterday at Minneapolis. The following are the legislative nominations:

For Senator—C. H. Pettit, of Minneapolis.

Representatives—L. Fletcher, of Minneapolis; C. H. Clark of Minneapolis; A. R. Hall of Dayton.

Political Excitement Among the Scandinavians.

The Scandinavian, a radical paper published in Chicago, has in its edition of the 7th, a long editorial article about the coming elections in Wisconsin and Minnesota, of which the following is an extract:

"It is no use longer to deny that the republican party has treated the Scandinavian population in a most unthankful way, by the distribution of federal, State and county offices. Why this has been done can well be answered, but not by any means in a satisfactory manner—Competition for office and nominations is, of course, always very lively, but it takes a good deal of strength and clever fighting to get so far in the front that a strong pressure can be had at the authorities. The Scandinavians, as a rule are not mean and reckless enough to use all the instruments which are necessary to open the doors to the higher offices. After the nominations are made, oh! how dear the Scandinavian votes then are to the candidates; how necessary it is to the regular ticket, that we not again be subject to the loss of our liberty; that the Scandinavians certainly ought to have had two or three offices, but that we must only this time vote, and then we most certainly will get our lawful reward next time."

"It will be very interesting to see what new promises there will be given to get our votes, but we tell the republican party to be patriotic that if they do not acknowledge the Scandinavian element in the state or county conventions, it in its conventions should nominate true and loyal Scandinavians, we shall support them with all our power. Germans and Irish, English and Scotch have got their nationalities acknowledged and under the present circumstances there can be no reason why we should take a back seat."

Cuban Independence.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Senor Jose Manuel Macio has been commissioned an agent of the Cuban government to treat with the Spanish authorities in reference to the acknowledgment of the independence of Cuba.

Senor Macio left this city for Europe last Saturday, and expects to meet General Prim at some point in France, and at once enter into negotiations concerning the object of his mission.

In accordance with a promise made by Gen. Prim to the Cubans to do so, fourteen months since, the Cubans furnished the Spanish revolutionary Junta $1,500,000 in gold to aid in overthrowing Isabella, in return for which Cuba was to be made independent.

It is reported that a privateer left a few nights since, destined for service of the Cubans.

REMOVING OF THE ODESSA WHEAT.

(From the Louisville Courier-Journal Aug. 10.)

A private letter received in this city yesterday states that on last Friday night a party of fifteen men, masked and mounted, went to the house of James Crowder, fourteen miles beyond Lebanon, on the Lebanon and Danville pike, and, taking him out a short distance from the house, hanged him to the limb of a tree. An Enterprising Youth.

From the Alexandria Post.

The machinery of this government is a "big thing," and the law must be followed. Take an instance, by way of illustration, which occurred yesterday at the Alexandria U. S. Land Office. The instructions under the Great Homestead Law of Congress are, that the applicant shall be either 21 years of age or a married man. A spruce young man, by name M. G. Pixley, applied for a homestead, and being under age, was informed that his application could not be entertained. He was not easily balked. Being absent a few hours, he made himself a married man before Squire Hollabaugh, and with an air of proud triumph renewed his application, which in double quick time met the thing win. He has duly sworn "So help you—fourteen dollars and a half," and went on his way rejoicing. We venture the prediction that this young man is made of the right sort of material to succeed in life. Beg pardon; we should have said married life.

WOOD.—A number of barges have resumed the transportation of wood between Chaska and St. Paul. There has been an advance in the price and a greater demand for that article than during the summer or spring.

UNION HOTEL.—Mr. Wm. Ochs the proprietor of the old Garabaldi Hotel has changed the name to that of Union Hotel. Mr. Ochs has run the Union for a long time, is thoroughly acquainted with the public. Give him a call.

County Commissioners.

The board of County Commissioners meet on Tuesday the 7th day of September next. They meet at that time as a board of equalization, to equalize the Assessors returns of personal property for the year 1869. They also fix at this session, the rate of taxation, under which taxes are levied for the ensuing year. We believe the Board will be guided in these matters, by the best interest of the County, and that no fault will be found with them—all those having business before the Board will bear the time of meeting in mind. The session will probably be a long one.

IMPORTANT SUIT.—One of the most exciting law suits of the season came off before Justice Sargent on Saturday last, L. H. Wiggin of Minneapolis, was complained of for selling goods at auction in this town without a County license. The statutor provided that "The board of County Commissioners may license for the term of one year, one or more legal voters of their County to be auctioneers" and again the statutes provide that "If any person, not licensed and qualified as an auctioneer as prescribed by law, sells or attempts to sell real or personal property at public auction, he is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not exceeding two dollars for each offense." Mr. Wiggin did not deny but had sold goods at public auction without a license as complained of, but claimed that he was acting as the clerk of Chas. J. Sorenson one of the County auctioners. The prosecution contended that the County license of an auctioneer was a personal privilege to be exercised only by the person who held the same and could not be delegated to another. The first jury could not agree, whereupon a second jury was empaneled and returned a verdict of acquittal—on the ground we are informed that Mr. Sorenson could delegate his authority to another. Whether that is good or not, we leave others to decide.

STORM—DAMAGE.—The severe rain storm last Friday night, delayed the harvest fully a week, and also undoubtedly otherwise occasioned some damage to the crops. In many localities it will be utterly impossible to use the Reaper account of the ground being so soft and mire. Notwithstanding all this, a much larger crop will be harvested for the next few nights.

Poetry.

LITTLE FLOW-IN HEAVEN.

Oh, darling, darling, five years old in Heaven!
To bridge her hair has yearning leaves way,
That I may feel it with my neck so clinging,
Or taste the taste of life to day.

The summer sleeps and dreams on mount and meadow,
The vines are sweet with fullest blossoming,
The thoughts through the cherry's heart is thrilling,
The robes, that you loved so, sing a song.

The world is all as full of life and beauty,
As the bright glancing spirit steps have been,
My eyes are blushed and my wild heart rives,
The sunbeams, and the smile of Heaven!—

And let me see the same bright beauty,
The same short sun-tan cars the shade like roses—
The same fair dimpled form of roses grace,
Sheed from us persons of your lovely Heaven,
And the world all the more to love and honor,
There will be breath of jasmine and lily.

Where your bright glancing spirit steps have been,
Five years—old, and older, larger, taller—
The wiser, and the wiser thought and deeper beauty,
The laughing eyes, and rounded baby-brown.

Yet looking back across your life, bright sun,
Is the earth-life, the earth-pain all forgot?
Is each year's birth a new life, and each year's
Is each year's death a new remembrance not?

One little silver word from out the silence—
One dash of shining hate to still your tears,
These are the words that you have given me,
To tell me, angel one, that you are near.

There is a breath—is it of jasmin, lily,
Or spray of sweet rose from bays? the sea?
And the world is all as full of life and beauty,
Oh, darling, darling, you have been with me!

BEGGING AS A FINE ART.

A School Taken Down For Begging.

It is difficult to find the moment to determine what institution London still lacks, since it is easy for one at all acquainted with the city, to come upon the fingers the ones who daily practice beggary. The pocket-pickings are systematically taught in secret, but up to a very recent period no one had dared to establish upon the Thames a school where begging, as a profession, is actually taught, and where the pupils have the advantages of lectures and the like.

"What do you mean? Is this human bug?" asked of my friend, who was annoyed by it.

"So this is the truth," he replied, and continued making his toilet, as though discussing one of the commonest questions of the day. "There is the name of the professor and his residence, No. 21 Princess Street, St. Giles."

"What is his name?"

"Boony."

"I have the greatest desire to take a course of lessons in order to give to the world the benefit of my observations."

"Why not do it?"

"In that case I must hurry."

"Why? Do you fear that the seats will be all engaged?"

"No; that, but rather that the police will be apt to close the academy as soon as possible."

"The police? Oh, no! Romeo keeps within the law, so as soon to come in contact with it."

On the next day I sought Prof. Romeo, I did not in the least believe in his existence, but thought that the announcement of his having such an unusual reputation would be easily made known to the press.

After considerable hunting I at last found myself face to face with Prof. Romeo, whom I found dressed elegantly.

"How can I serve you?" he asked, on my entrance, rising from his seat.

The sudden question rather disconcerted me.

"I wish to take a course of lessons in the art of begging, with success," said I, after a short pause.

At the words "with success," I could not suppress a smile.

"Well, I come here to make the art of begging, in the true sense of the word, a means of your future support; it was you, who, I am sure, have the earned desire to give to the world the benefit of your teaching and securing a seat. I can pay the required fare."

Saying this, I took out my purse.

"I have a sum of money in your pocket," said Romeo, with a gesture of contempt.

"I cannot allow your name to be placed upon the register of my academy, for I take none here but those having a firm determination to pursue for the future the paths I show them."

"But I will," continued he, "make an exception for once, in your case, in order to convince you that there is not so much in it to be gained in a course of beggar's progress which would appear. Please follow."

I had scarcely time to recover, from my astonishment at his words, when Romeo led me into a wide hall which opened into a wide room—the library proper—the rear of which was handsomely decorated, and at this end was placed a desk for the lecturer. On the wall were hung many well-preserved paintings, representing many of the beauties of nature, constructed in the most artistic ways to the present time. The collection was one of considerable merit in a historical point of view.

The room represents London only, and I think Romeo, pointing to a collection showing the ways of London beggars.

We then entered a second room, which contained the implements of the beggar's profession. Here was a chest with glass doors containing pieces made of what appeared to be paper mache, representing shot and shab-wounds in various stages of healing. These were applied to any part of the body, and now as the States are spread in the North made its appearance in the South.

They are again open to the commercial world, in addition to the old ones, it has gained many new customers in that section.

The entire collection of these articles of beggar's trade is a masterpiece, including trinkets, although its popularity has been gained only by a thorough test.

Coming down on the Hill, Romeo and I sat down on a bench in the rear of the building, and he began his lecture.

G. KRAYENBUEHL, Chairman.

County Convention.

We publish this week, the call for the Democratic County Convention, to meet at the village of Waconia, on Saturday the 18th day of September. A full County ticket is to be chosen, a Senator and Representative and 6 delegates to the State Convention. Likewise, County Commissioners in the 2d and 3d districts.

There are a "multitude" of candidates in the field for positions, on the County ticket, from which it is inferred that the Convention will be unusually exciting. For our part we hope that the best of feeling will prevail, and that differences may be reconciled, so that we may enter the canvass harmoniously. The party is not strong enough in this County to run an independent ticket and should such be resorted to by disappointed candidates, it would prove the defeat of both tickets this fall.

A man named McBetty, a clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, is under arrest at Newark, N. J., charged with forging the signature of Gen. Spinner on a check for $906, which was cashed in Philadelphia. That genius ought to be put upon public exhibition. We would make a Sabbath day's journey to see the man who could imitate Spinner's hieroglyphics.

The following amendments to the Constitution of Minnesota are to be voted on this fall:

1. Amendment of Article Eleven of the Constitution, abolishing Manomia County and attaching it to Anoka County.

2. Amendments of Sec. 1, Art. 9 of the Constitution, allowing taxes for local improvements to be assessed on the property benefited.

We were visited by severe storm last Tuesday, that done some damage.

Dent vs. Boutwell.

A Dispatch from Washington states that Judge Dent, brother-in-law of Gen. Grant, and the conservative candidate for Governor of Mississippi, has written a letter to Senator Boutwell, charging him with having gained the power and control of the patronage in that and other Southern States for the purpose of securing the defeat of Grant for the next Presidency, and advancing his own chances for the office. He declares that Boutwell intends to destroy the confidence of the Southern people in Grant, and charge him with being at the bottom of the movement against him in Mississippi and Hamilton in Texas. He says that Boutwell's interference in Virginia and Tennessee secured the election of Walker and Senter, and finally inquiries of Boutwell by what authorities he pronounces upon his political orthodoxy. He asks, "Who constituted you the infallible pope of Republicanism?"

"Who gave you permission to hurl the political anathemas of the party?"

He also charges that Boutwell has acted without the concurrence of the President in his recent endorsement of Southern radicals.

Observing the Eclipse.

Just as the excitement in regard to the solar spectacle was at its height on Saturday afternoon, a befuddled individual came down to the City Hall from a Gradient street saloon, and innocently inquired what was going on up "there." "Eclipse of the sun," returned a man who was pushing his nose against a piece of smoked glass. "Hic-clips of er sun?" "Why, hang me if er don't see er. Lend me your glass." Having got the glass, the fellow, owing to the eclipse of his intellect, could not hold it steady, and finally joggled it around until he got his eye in range of a tall darkey, who stood leaning against a lamp-post.

"Why, why, wrench my neck if there ain't one of those Paton's alley niggers looking around up there for chickens!" —Detroit Free Press.

Norway Oats.

The Alexandria Post says Mr. Valentine Nichols, of Chippewa, has a small patch of Norway oats the seed of which was procured from New York at $1.25 for a pound.

This was sowed on ground which had not been ploughed, but was simply hoed.

The yield from one pound will be about eight bushels. One head, a fair sample of the average of the lot, contained 339 grains, and there were fifteen stalks growing from one grain. This is about as large and strong, that the squirrels climb on them to the heads for the grain. The straw will probably be very heavy and stiff, but we suggest that it be made useful as fuel.

Disasters to the Carlists.

MADRID, Aug. 21.

A band of Carlists under Polo was recently defeated at Almagro and his Secretary was among the prisoners captured. Most of the Carlist bands had dispersed. It is rumored that a conspiracy in favor of the Prince of Asturias has been discovered by the authorities.

Hostile Blackfeet.

HELENA, Montana, Aug. 19.—The Blackfeet Indians have been for some time past running off stock between Helena and Benton. Yesterday they killed a man named Cask and badly wounded his son, at a ranch twenty-five miles from Helena. They threaten to raid Blackfoot Valley. There is much excitement among the settlers.

The Government is actually running itself without the aid of a Cabinet or President. Secretary Boutwell is now at his home in Massachusetts. Attorney General Hear is in the same locality. Secretary Cox is at home in Ohio. Secretary Fish is on the Hudson. Postmaster General Cresswell is at his country seat in Maryland. Secretary Robeson is on a tour of inspection, and Secretary Rawlins has left for Danbury, Conn.

A New York dispatch gives a rumor that the Pennsylvania Central Railroad will put on a train which will run from New York to Chicago in 30 hours, which will cause the railroads to shorten their time.

GOING EAST.—Florian Linenfels, of the firm of Linenfels & Co., starts east Monday or Tuesday next after a fall and winter supply of goods. We wish Mr. L. a safe journey and return.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company pays a tax of $98,734.87

for July, earnings and dividends reported to the United States Assessors.

The latest figures of the Tennessee election are: Senator, 118,714; Stokes, 50,906. Senator's majority, 67,808.—Complete returns will increase the majority to 79,000.

The principal candidates for the United States Senator in Maine are Mr. Fessenden, Speaker Blaine, ex-Senator Morrill and Gov. Chamberlain.

We were visited by severe storm last Tuesday, that done some damage.

COUNTY FAIR.

We wish our farmers to bear in mind the fact that our County Fair is to be held at Carver on Saturday the 25th of September next. A little interest taken in time will ensure success for the annual fair. The farmers of Carver County are well advanced in farming; we possess as good soil as can be found in the State; we produce as fine horses, cattle, sheep, hogs &c. as any locality in Minnesota and nothing prevents a grand display providing necessary interest is taken. Our orchards should be fully represented, in fact all branches of manufactures and trade. If such is the interest taken we will have a grand fair, which will inaugurate a new era in the ambition of our farmers.

We hope that the officers and committees will have the ground in proper condition, with proper enclosures, stalls, tables &c. The display of articles must be arranged in order to excite interest. System must be had. Take hold of the matter in time and have everything ready for the occasion. It will be a success.

FARMERS INS. COMPANY.

This association is daily growing popular with farmers and will be long the company that farmers will insure their property in. Farmers property only is insured, at $2, per $100, for 10 years, besides the initiation fee $5. We recommend this Association to our farmers. Fred E. Du Toit Agent, Chaska Minn.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Thompson, Capt. Smith's Mother-in-law met with a severe accident last Saturday. It happened during the evening, while passing from one room to another through the house. She fell over a vase, breaking her arm above the elbow. Dr. Griffin of Carver and Wakefield of Shakopee were called in attendance and we understand the patient is doing well.

CHICKEN HUNTING.—Sheriff Hecklin has made several excursions to Eden Prairie, and Sand Creek, in quest of chickens and on several occasions brought in as high as 30 in one day. Mr. Hecklin is one of our best "shot" and keeps our market supplied with the "delicacies" of the season in the game line.

REMOVED.—The HERALD establishment is being moved into the new HERALD office, opposite Mr. L. Warner's Store on Second street. We shall in the course of a short time, be happy to receive calls from our friends.

PROGRESSING.—Work on the new

Waconia road is progressing finely.

County Surveyor Chever has supervision of the work, which together with the well known contractors, guarantees good work and a good road.

HARVEST.—Notwithstanding the severe storms and unfavorable weather of the past three weeks the grain in this vicinity is about all cut and in stack.

In some localities the threshers are at work and we presume next week new wheat and barley will be plenty in market. We learn that rust has made its appearance in some fields, but to no great extent.

PERSONAL.—We were not at home when our friends Maj. H. B. Straif, Ben Hopkins and Capt. Kennedy and ladies called at our place, we were unavoidably absent.

CHANGED.—The Post office has been removed to the building lately occupied by Jas. McKnight, a druggist. Said colt is of unusual size. A liberal reward will be given for his return or information leading to his recovery.

NEWWARE HOUSE.—Knoblauch &

Thompson have erected a Newware

House on 3d street, near the residence of Ed. Goetz, they propose to fill it with what the coming winter.

BIZ.—The Chief Engineer of the Hastings and R. R. Road was about town, taking a look at things last week.

He seemed as "mum as a Turkey" when asked where will the road cross the Minn River. Time will tell.

SORRY.—We were not at home when our friends Maj. H. B. Straif, Ben Hopkins and Capt. Kennedy and ladies called at our place, we were unavoidably absent.

Malcolm Clark killed by the Indians.

From the Minneapolis Tribune, Aug. 21.

A private dispatch to Gen. Van Cleve, of St. Anthony, from the Governor of Minnesota, announces the death of Malcolm Clark, a brother of Mrs. Van Cleve. It seems that the Blackfeet Indians for some time past have been engaged in hunting up stock and committing other depredations between Helena and Butte, and on the 15th inst. three of them attacked and killed Malcolm Clark, and badly wounded his son Horace. Mrs. Clark, his mother, is now visiting General Van Cleve's, in St. Anthony, and it will be remembered that Miss Nellie Clark, his daughter, spent the summer with the General's family four or five years ago. Malcolm Clark was the son of Major Clark, who was stationed at Fort Snelling soon after it was built.

Carroll's hatred of the French Emperor is so great that, when she saw his marble bust the other day in one of the corridors of the palace of Liechtenstein, she rushed towards it, seized it, and threw it to the ground, breaking it into a thousand pieces, that bust had been sent by Napoleon III, as a present to Carroll's father, Leopold I., when the latter mollified him on the perpetration of his only daughter to the Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian of Austria.
